

V. RESUBMITTED QUESTIONNAIRE BY YOUR ATTORNEY

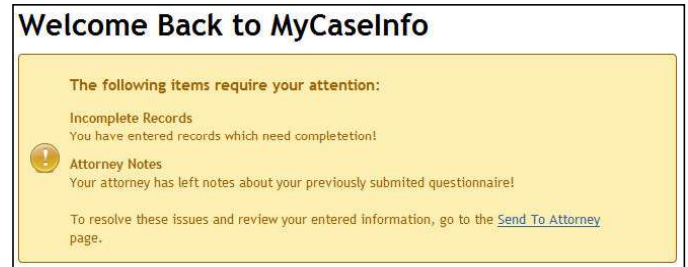

While reviewing your questionnaire, your attorney might find some areas where the information is missing, incorrect or incomplete. In these cases, the attorney will send your questionnaire back to you for more information.

- You will receive an email with specific instructions on which sections of the questionnaire you need to complete or adjust.
- Your MyCaseInfo account is automatically unlocked when your attorney resubmits your questionnaire back to you.
- Needs Review Notes
 - Your attorney might have made notes to your account that need your attention. When you log back into MyCaseInfo you will see a message that there are notes for review.
 - Click Review to access your attorney’s notes and make adjustments to your questionnaire.

✳ TIP: Quickly go to a specific note by clicking Jump to Note of the desired question.

- Send a response back to your attorney directly from the Needs Review Note.
- Once you have completed reviewing your questionnaire, send it back to your attorney for further review.

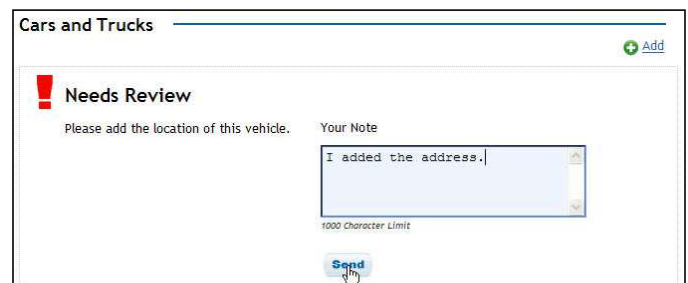

- As your attorney reviews the information and responses of their notes, they may mark the question as complete once finished as shown right.

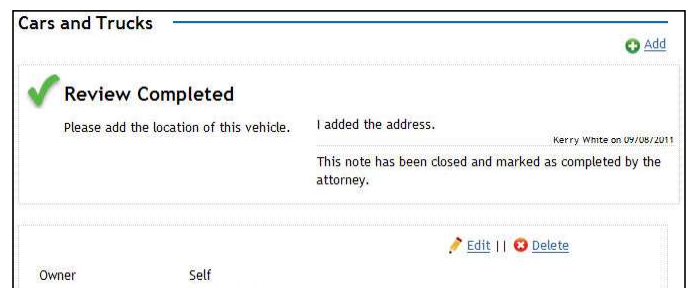

Review Notice: If your attorney has made notes for you to review, you will see a message when you log back into MyCaseInfo.

Summary Review: The Review page will show you exactly how many notes your attorney has made and an easy way to get to a particular note.

Needs Review Notes: See the note your attorney made about a question and easily respond.

Completed Review Note: Once a review note has been completed, your attorney might mark it as such to easily identify that this question needs no further review.
